

THE DEMPSEY WILL NOT FIGHT HARRY WILLS

Jack Kearns Refuses to Accept W. A. Brady's Offer for $200,000 Bout.

WHY HE OPPOSES MATCH

Fears Such a Contest Would Result in Irreparable Harm to the Sport.

By CHARLES F. MATHISON.

William A. Brady has come forward with an offer of a purse of $200,000 for a match between Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills, to be decided next summer, Dempsey to receive $150,000 and Wills $50,000.

"I am prepared to sign the contract and deposit an amount liberally guaranteeing my good faith," declared Brady yesterday. "The minute Dempsey, Wills and their managers likewise sign a contract, and post accompanying forfeits, I will stage the bout on July 4, somewhere in the United States, place to be definitely agreed upon and publicly announced sixty days prior to the contest."

Mr. Brady added that he was confident public sentiment would not be against such a match and declared that Wills was the logical opponent for the champion.

When Jack Kearns was asked if he would match his man against Wills under the auspices of Brady the manager of the champion did not exhibit feverish enthusiasm. On the contrary, he appeared to be disinterested and replied:

"Brady were to offer twice $200,000 I would not sign for a match with Wills. Not that I have any fear as to Dempsey defeating the negro, but purely from a business viewpoint. It would, in my opinion, be a very risky venture at this time and I would not attempt it."

Asked for reasons in support of his contention Kearns said:

"Against Mixed Matches.

"To begin with, I do not believe a mixed match of such prominence could be staged without a reasonable distance of the centers of population, and therefore it would not be a financial success. Even the Willard-Dempsey contest was not so productive of gate receipts as was anticipated, it being too far away from the big cities of the East."

"On the other hand, the Dempsey-Carpenter match, being set in the most thickly populated part of the East, was a magnificent success, and drew the greatest crowd that ever attended a sporting event in this country."

"Dempsey is not afraid to fight any man in the world, but as his business manager, am not inclined to put him in a match that might be prevented by the authorities on that might be deficient in the matter of gate receipts."

"Another important angle is this: Every boxing commission in the United States has declared against mixed matches. This applies to New York and New Jersey, the States nearest the center of large population. In addition to the boxing commissions, there are twenty-three States in the membership of the National Boxing Association, and all are bound by a working agreement that would bar a mixed match of the Willard-Dempsey size."

"It can readily be seen that the bout could not be staged in any of those States, and the question naturally comes up where could the men meet? Mexico, South America? Canada? Those places will not do, as a match in London will be with a guaranteed purse and no interference by the authorities."

Reformers Are at Work.

"Then there is another reason for not making such a match. The reformers are designing the Legislatures all over America with proposals to repeal the boxing laws now in existence. No one has forgotten the events that followed the Jeffries-Johnson match at Reno, and the match made in London. This is the same disorderly likely would follow. This would help the opponents of boxing in their fight against the sport, and I do not wish to do anything to endanger the sport, which seems now to be on a rather solid foundation."

Kearns was asked that in the event of the purse being guaranteed in advance if that would not remove his objections to the business feature. He replied:

"The promoter would guarantee a purse in advance, and the deposit of a certain amount of the purse would not compensate the champion for loss of time and other things. Then, again, the promoter might lose courage at a critical period of the match and suddenly withdraw, as was the case with Mr. Carson in the match between Wills and Dempsey. That match had it not been for Tex Rickard that match would have fallen through."

When Tex Rickard was asked if he would be a bidder for a match between Wills and Dempsey he replied that he would not, as it did not appeal to him as being feasible at the present time.

Good Preliminary Bout.

In addition to the Dundee-Benjamin bout at the Garden next Friday night, three good preliminary contests have been arranged. Sammy Naylor, recently defeated Harry London, will meet Dick Griffin. Amy Palmer of Oklahoma will clash with Italian Joe Gans and Pete Luzzo will meet Jack Palmer of Philadelphia.

Johnny Brown, the English boxer, will fight in the main event of Tuesday night with the veteran Charley Beecher of the East Side as his opponent. Brown's defeat of Bud Dempsey at the Pioneer Club a couple of weeks ago established him as a featherweight of such class. He is a good puncher and is able to weather a gale when he gets into one. His work proved that his fights with Joe Burman, battling Leno and other good men were not flukes.

Latzko Defeats Schoell.

SCRANTON, Jan. 26.—Pete Latzko of this city outpointed Frankie Schoell, a welterweight, in the first round of a ten-round bout. Latzko scored a knockdown, but from the fifth round on Latzko clearly outpointed him.

Cross Again a Dentist.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—Lester Cross, former lightweight, who quit the ring for dentistry, is now back in the ring. He is known as "Doc" Cross, and is now a dentist. He is now a dentist. He is now a dentist.

Caddock Accepts Offer.

Agreeing to meet any man who would defend for him, Earl Caddock, former welterweight, who quit the ring for dentistry, is now back in the ring. He is known as "Doc" Cross, and is now a dentist. He is now a dentist.

Carrier Pigeons in Race From Garden to Capital

Forty-eight Birds Start at Noon From Poultry Show With Messages to President and Mrs. Harding and Other Notables at Washington.

Carrying messages to President and Mrs. Harding, Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and Mrs. Wallace, Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey and Senators McCormick and McKinley of Illinois, forty-eight carrier pigeons left Madison Square Garden yesterday noon for Washington. They are the property of the United States Government and have been on exhibition at the Poultry Show in the Garden.

It is a test flight and is expected they would cover the distance of 228 miles in about six hours. The message to Mrs. Harding was entrusted to Beltsville Wonder, the bird which holds the world's record for carrier pigeons, having made a journey from Chicago to Washington in 14 hours and 25 minutes. The message to Mrs. Harding was from T. A. Havener, president of the show, and read: "The poultrymen of the country wish to extend greetings to you and your illustrious husband."

Another big crowd was at the show yesterday afternoon and night. Hundreds of specimens were judged and the following birds were delivered:

The most coveted and valuable trophy of the show went to the Bohadell Poultry Farm of Coa Cob, Conn., when its bird, a carrier pigeon, won the prize with its wings. The trophy was donated in memory of the late Henry V. Crawford, former Mayor of Monticello, N. Y. The winner, a male, weighed 215.5 ounces.

Lord Dewar's birds secured a double. They were adjudged the best of the dark Cornish cocks and the best of the dark Cornish pullets.
